Excerpt from The Cultivator, 1864, Vol. 12: A Monthly Journal for the Farm and the Garden, Devoted to Agricultural and Rural Improvement, and Designed to Improve the Soil and the Mind; Third Series

Try the experiment, and you will see that a course of education specially adapted to the case, will be just as valuable to the son who carries on the old farm, as to the one who leaves the homestead for the bar, the pulpit, or the doctor's 0600.

About the Publisher

Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books. Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com

This book is a reproduction of an important historical work. Forgotten Books uses state-of-the-art technology to digitally reconstruct the work, preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy. In rare cases, an imperfection in the original, such as a blemish or missing page, may be replicated in our edition. We do, however, repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully; any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works.
